Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1, a party seeking relief from the automatic stay must afford the debtor(s) fourteen (14) days from the service date of the motion to object. When the motion is served by first class mail, the debtor will receive an additional three (3) days to object. If a party seeking relief from the automatic stay selects a hearing date that occurs before the debtor's opportunity to object has passed, the hearing may be continued automatically to the next available date.

WARNING: LIFT STAY MOTIONS MAY NOT BE SERVED ELECTRONICALLY OR THROUGH THE COURT'S CM/ECF NOTIFICATION SYSTEM.
